Soviet, Asian, African Bloc Can Beat U. S.

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The Soviet and Asian-African blocs demonstrated twice this week how they can defeat the United States if they vote together.

The votes were not on key issues but they showed that the West's "automatic majority," at which the Soviets have relied for years, became a thing of the past this session with the addition of 16 new African members to the General Assembly, now composed of 99 nations.

The votes indicate what could happen if the nine Soviet bloc nations and the 45 Asian-African members teamed up on such issues as the Congo and the sweeping Soviet demand to abolish all colonies.

The latest U. S. defeat came Friday night when the General Assembly voted to postpone elections to the Security and Economic-Social Councils. Nine members abstained on the proposal by Nigeria, one of the newly admitted African nations.

Nigeria, speaking for the Asian-African bloc sought postponement because the special political committee is debating the issue of enlarging the councils.

Two days earlier Soviet and African-Asian blocs jammed through a move in the General Assembly to suspend debate on the Congo despite United States efforts to keep it going. That ballot was 48-30 with 18 abstentions.

Western observers predicted the United States may win up on the short end again when the Soviet bloc on colonies hits the assembly floor. The United States, allied with such nations as Britain, France, the Netherlands and Belgium, would not want to vote for a sweeping call to abolish all colonies. But any American attempt to water down the Soviet demands may run into opposition from both the Soviet and African-Asian blocs.

Garrison Rallys to Revolution

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The military garrison of the royal capital of Luang Prabang rallied today to the Revolutionary Committee of Savannakhet a radio broadcast, from Luang Prabang reported.

The Savannakhet committee opposes the neutralist government of Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma, who went from this administrative capital Thursday to Luang Prabang. He was received in audience by the king and returned here today.

The broadcast from Luang Prabang, by Maj. Boumpheng Isixiangmay, chief of the 3rd Infantry Battalion which forms most of the Luang Prabang military garrison, said he does not recognize the authority of the royal government in Vientiane any longer.

At the same time, Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, the leader in Savannakhet, seized a four engine Air Laos plane, which was transporting French teachers in southern Laos, and sent a platoon of paratroopers as reinforcements to Maj. Isixiangmay.

Dollarway Plan Deadline Nov. 18

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Dollarway School Board has been given until Nov. 18 to file a new desegregation plan.

Federal District Judge J. Smith Henley Thursday gave the board a one week extension.

Henley had ordered the board to present a new plan Saturday. An original plan said integration would be considered in the first grade initially but lateral transfers in higher grades would not be considered.

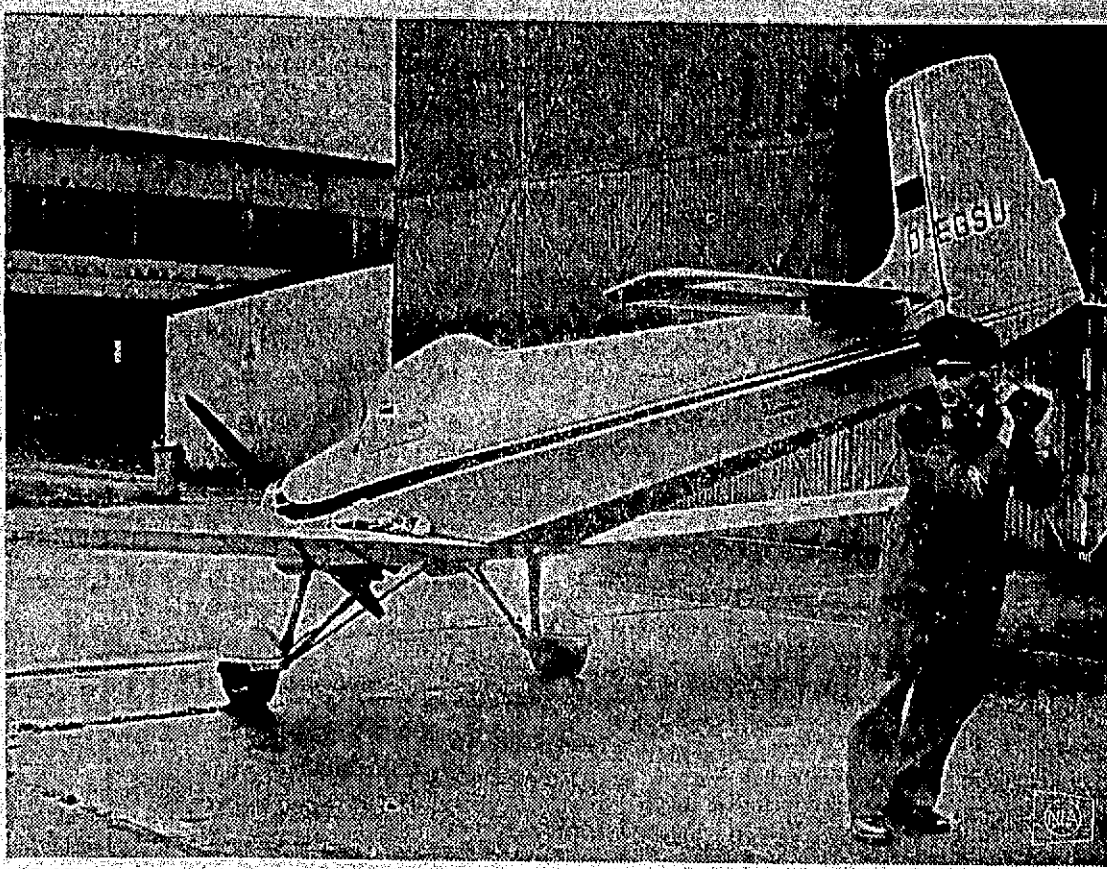

Henley approved the plan but the 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals said it wasn't definite enough.

Lee Parham, president of the Dollarway board, said the board is working on a new plan and will discuss it with its attorneys before submitting it.

One 6-year-old Negro girl is attending previously all-white Dollarway School.

Weather

ARKANSAS — Fair and warmer today. Tomorrow, partly cloudy with little change.

JUST ODDS AND ENDS—West German Air Force Sgt. Hans-Joachim Ludwig, 32, tows his homemade airplane out of a hangar at Wahn Airport near Bonn. He made the single-engine plane mostly from scrap parts. He purchased only the engine, propeller and a few metal parts. The plane has a speed of 100 m.p.h. and a 300-mile range.

State Driver Program Is Favored

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Roads and Highways Committee of the Arkansas Legislative Council has voted to recommend to the council a state-sponsored driver education program in high schools.

The committee heard Thursday a talk by Dr. H. O. Carlton, consultant to the American Automobile Association who said such programs have proved their value in reducing accidents and traffic violations by 50 per cent.

The committee favored a voluntary program with the schools deciding whether or not they want to undertake the course. The matter of student fees was left open. Carlton suggested the courses could be held during summer vacations or after school. The group recommended that regular credit be given for them.

The local school districts would underwrite the course but the state would pay the districts $10 for each student who graduated from it.

The committee also recommended reducing from 16 to 15 years of age the eligibility for getting driver's license if it was done through the driver education course.

If the Legislative Council agrees with the committee it will pass the recommendations on to the 1961 Legislature for possible action.

Young Mother Kills 2 Children

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A young mother put her two children to death in the garage at their home in suburban Lyndhurst late Thursday but failed in an attempt to kill herself, police reported.

The children were found dead and their mother seriously ill in an automobile parked in the garage. The motor of the car was running and the garage was filled with fumes.

Dead were Joel Morrison, 4, and his sister, Diane, 3.

The mother, Mrs. Jerome Morrison, 27, was held under police guard at Hanna Pavilion of University Hospitals. No charge was filed against her.

Morrison, an accountant, found his wife and children huddled in the car when he returned from work about 6 p. m.

Guess Its Better Late Than Never

WEST ORANGE, N. J. (AP) — I'll be 10 years late but better late than never for California here I come when Miss Ruth Sprague hits the road Saturday or Sunday.

Mrs. Sprague, a registered nurse who is "past 65—past the retiring age," Thursday picked up the Dodge automobile she ordered here in 1950.

In February of 1950 she had decided to retire buy a car and go to California.

She bought the car all right, paid $2,400 for it in 18 monthly payments, but didn't go through with her retirement plan.

The car was kept in good condition for her by garage mechanics who took it for a short spin every six months putting eight miles on the speedometer over the years.

Two Delight Youths Held For Forgery

A pair of Delight youths have been arrested in connection with forging and cashing two checks totaling $103, Deputy Sheriff Herbert Griffin said Friday.

One youth was listed as Don J. Tyner, 18, and the other a 15 year old. Deputy Sheriff Griffin said both checks were forged in the name of Homer Stone, one cashed at C. D. Hare & Son in the sum of $46.10 and the other at Hope Feed Co. in the sum of $57.20. Mr. Griffin said the boys apparently used the money to buy an old car here.

Youth Killed at Bentonville

BENTONVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A St. Paul, Minn., youth was killed and two other youths injured early today in an accident on U. S. Highway 71 about three miles north of here.

Dead is Leroy Hedman, 16. Michael John Mayer, 17, of St. Paul and Dave Vaughn 17, of Portsmouth, Ohio, were in fair condition at a Bentonville hospital.

Sheriff High Black said the car the boys were traveling in was stolen at Fort Smith, where Hedman and Mayer were paroled Thursday on juvenile delinquency charges.

Black said the car hit a rock embankment at a high speed.

Fort Smith authorities said Hedman and Mayer had been in jail since Oct. 22. They were paroled Thursday by U. S. District Judge John E. Miller and were taken to the bus station with tickets to St. Paul.

They were left in the bus station, officials said, and they apparently met Vaughn there.

10 Shot in Just Half a Minute

PARIS (AP) — In an attack that lasted just half a minute, three Algerian terrorists shot 10 persons in a Paris suburban cafe Thursday night. Seven died.

Two gunmen opened fire from the instant they burst through the front door. The third man stood aside with a hand grenade, ready to throw it if anyone tried to flee. He put it back in his pocket when the firing stopped.

Diners ducked under tables and a counter but five were killed instantly. Two others died on the way to a hospital and another was in critical condition. Two managed to escape the bullets.

Attackers and victims alike were Algerian.

Randolph GOP For First Time

POCAHONTAS, Ark. (AP) — Randolph County went Republican in Tuesday's election for the first time in history. Randolph voters gave Nixon 1,620 votes to 1,556 for Kennedy. The States Rights Party got 102 votes.

But the county stayed Democratic in the Arkansas governors' race, giving Gov. Orval E. Faubus 2,342 to 870 for Republican Henry M. Britt.

Prisoners Strike

MEDELLIN, Colombia (AP) — One thousand prisoners went on a hunger strike today in protest against a ban on visits by wives and sweethearts for conjugal visits—a standard practice in Latin American jails. Officials of La Ladera Prison called the strike "unpopular."

Wrong Body Brings Hope and Sadness

NEW YORK (AP) — How did the body of the "wrong" airline stewardess get into a coffin scheduled for burial in the Bronx?

Who then was the unconscious girl in a California hospital? A tragic case of mistaken identity, a coroner explained Thursday.

The announcement brought crushing despair to the family of one girl and joyous hope to another.

Last Monday, four stewardesses were in a head-on traffic crash while riding in a taxicab near the San Francisco Airport. They were taken to Peninsula Hospital in Burlingame. One stewardess died.

And on the basis of a few scattered personal papers found at the scene she was identified as Mary Hawthorne, 26, a tall blonde from New York City.

The survivors underwent surgery. One girl, her face badly damaged, remained unconscious. She was identified as Joan Frost, 26, of New York City.

But the identifications were wrong and the body of Miss Frost was shipped to New York for burial.

Coroner Paul Jensen 52, of San Mateo County, said identification was made on the basis of the purse and personal effects arriving at Peninsula Hospital.

"Here you have the situation—four girls arriving at the hospital all in the same uniforms. All with the same hairdos, and all with the same type of attire," he said.

The body of the dead girl had been placed in a sealed casket and when she arrived here the lid remained closed.

Only a sentimental gesture on the part of Miss Hawthorne's friends halted the funeral, scheduled for Thursday.

Norma Pugh, also an American Airlines Stewardess, and another of Miss Hawthorne's friends, Robert Evans, an American flight engineer, went to the Bronx funeral home Wednesday to pay their last respects.

Miss Pugh had one of Miss Hawthorne's favorite rings—a pearl friendship ring. She and Evans asked that the coffin be opened so they could place the ring on Mary's finger.

"Oh my God," cried Evans. "That's not Mary."

They called Mary's stepfather and her mother, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Schnell, of the Bronx.

Hurried calls were placed to California.

The handbag girl regained consciousness Thursday and murmured: "I'm Mary Hawthorne."

The correct identification came as a shock to Thomas Frost, father of the dead girl. He had flown to California to be near the girl he thought to be his daughter. He couldn't know that her body was in a funeral home across the country.

When told, he collapsed. He and his son, William, 21, flew to their Philadelphia home last night. He was too grief-stricken to comment.

Mary Hawthorne still is in grave condition, but her family has hope.

GOPs Hopeful Recount Will Change Picture

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans cling to the hope today that recounts and absentee ballot tabulations might give Vice President Richard M. Nixon a popular vote lead over Sen. John F. Kennedy.

That was the practical valuation put by spokesmen for Nixon on a request by GOP National Chairman Thurston B. Morton for a recheck of the vote in 11 states. Nixon was not consulted about Morton's recheck request, an aide said.

While some Republican leaders had dreamed of overturning Tuesday's results which gave Kennedy more than enough electoral votes for the presidency, Nixon's top aides made it clear they expect no such outcome.

Herbert G. Klein, Nixon's press secretary, and Robert Finch, his campaign manager, did say they believe the vice president may gain a lead over Kennedy in the final count of popular votes. They didn't say so, but any such result would be regarded as a boost for Nixon to run again in 1964.

When Morton asked for the recounts in 11 states, he told GOP officials in the states to look into "purported vote frauds."

Reports from some of the 11 states indicated that few local Republican officials were hopeful of changing the results in any significant way. Some, in fact, said there was no evidence of fraud.

The latest Associated Press tally, with 1,672 voting places uncounted, showed: Kennedy 33,627,229; Nixon 33,348,397.

Finch and Klein told a news conference Friday that Nixon was not consulted about Morton's move for recounts or inquiries into any irregularities in Illinois, Texas, Delaware, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nevada, New Mexico, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and South Carolina.

In Miami, Fla., where he went for a post-election vacation, Nixon said he knew nothing about plans for legal action which might lead to vote recounts in states where Kennedy was declared the winner.

Finch and Klein said Nixon was standing by Tuesday's results and has no plans to take any affirmative action toward trying to upset them.

In a 12th state, California, Republicans were hoping that the counting of absentee ballots would take the state out of Kennedy's electoral column and put it into Nixon's. But the first tallies indicated the absentee vote would not swing the state to Nixon.

At the polls Tuesday, Kennedy took a 37,140 lead in California. Nixon would need almost two-thirds of the state's 200,000 absentee ballots to erase that.

Officials counted the first 3,400 of the California absentee ballots Friday. The totals were in Nixon's favor but they enabled him to cut down Kennedy's lead by only 438 votes.

Finch said any recounts or other action taken will be entirely in the hands of local Republicans in the 11 states. He added that "any hopes we have that the national result will be overturned by local action in the states is very slight."

Finch went on to say that the most any Republican could hope for would be to reduce Kennedy's electoral total, which now stands at 332, to slightly below the necessary 269 margin. He said this would merely throw the election into the hands of uncommitted electors. Eight of these were elected in Mississippi and six in Alabama.

Condemnation Suit Is Filed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The federal government has filed a condemnation suit in U.S. District Court against G.W. Henry of Conway asking for right of way for a road to one of 18 Titan II missile launching sites to be built near Little Rock Air Force Base.

Army Engineers said Henry was the only one of 39 owners of property involved in the missile site construction who declined to give the government permission to enter the premises.

There Simply Is No Fury Like Temper of a Person Born From Oct. 22 to Nov. 21

By MARY ANITA LASETER

Step aside, folks. Here come some people known as Scorpio personalities. They are those born from Oct. 22 through Nov. 21. Of course, their astrological sign is that of a scorpion, and this writer comes in that category. Hence, the personal interest in what follows.

The horoscope for a person born in Scorpio shows an attractive, magnetic, and dynamic personality (this is starting off good). But (I knew there would be a catch) one that is quite difficult to understand. Though such persons are usually courteous, generous, loyal, sympathetic, and patient, if their feelings are aroused, there is no fury like their temper.

They not only get angry, but extremely obstinate, and headstrong with it. Under such conditions they are apt to become cynical, self-willed, and selfish.

Also, these folks have a tendency toward being secretive and don't always reflect their thoughts. (All of which sounds like the perfect ingredients for a splendid spy, doesn't it?)

(Surely if I delve into this reading further I can find something better! Ah! yes.) Under ordinary circumstances these folks possess a soothing quality which others enjoy. They are usually quite likeable, and when they are helpful and diplomatic, they can exert considerable influence on others. A scorpio personality is sincere and may be depended upon by others. In fact, their friends often rely on them and appeal to their understanding.

Will Rogers was, perhaps, the best-known and best-loved figure in modern times born under this sign. Two women named Marie (Curie and Antoinette) come in this category, as do Martin Luther, Robert Fulton, Daniel Boone, and Chiang Kai-shek.

On the political scene, four Presidents, Teddy Roosevelt, James K. Polk, Warren G. Harding, and James A. Garfield, were born under the sign of Scorpio, and so was Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson. If you think such men as political figures often show a sense of the dramatic, then glance toward other Scorpio personalities like Maude Adams and John Drew, Joan Fontaine and Rocio Hudson, sarcastic Katharine Hepburn and Clifton Webb, or beautifully built Italy Lammari and Burl Lancaster.

It follows that a person with a temper is temperamental. Therefore, musicians come to mind, and there were quite a few very famous ones born during this period of time. Starting with the Masters, we find Liszt, Johann Strauss, Paganini, and Paderowski. The March King, John Philip Sousa, comes in this group. In the more modern vein are Gus Kuhn, Phil Sitalny, W. C. Handy, and Johnny Mercer.

The powers of observation of these people are keen. They possess excellent reflective qualities which indicate every good concentration and ability to meditate logically. They are independent thinkers, as reflected by English writers John Keats and Robert Louis Stevenson, Russia's Dostoevski, or American like Oliver Goldsmith and Herman Mankiewicz.

National self-control is something that should be used to a great extent by these people who have intense feelings and emotions. But, since they also possess a powerful will and determination, it is within their power to hold their feelings in rain.

Many Scorpio people think and act simultaneously, so if you are one of them and think you are misunderstood (which may very well be the case), look around for another Scorpio and offer understanding to each other.

Station to Carry Emergency Notes

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Emergency messages to and from deer hunters in the field will be broadcast on a Little Rock radio station (KTSH) during Arkansas deer season.

The station will provide the emergency service from 5:30 to 6 a.m. and from 7:30 to 8 p.m. The service will be carried in cooperation with the Game and Fish Commission and the commission's radio network may be used if regulation telephone communication is not available.

Hunters may deal directly with the radio station or with commission wardens in the field.

The first part of the state's split deer season begins Monday.

Four Injured Near Hope in Burning Plane

NASHVILLE (AP) — An Iowa man brought his burning light plane in for an emergency landing in a pasture south of here late Friday, suffering severe burns himself, but saving his wife and two daughters from serious injury.

Billy Murrell, Dorsey, 34, of Carvers Lake, Ia., and his family were en route to Hope, to visit his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Urey.

Dorsey told state troopers and Howard County Sheriff Jack Jennings that the plane caught fire at about 6,000 feet and burned for about five minutes before he could bring it down.

Jennings said Mrs. Dorsey told him fire roared through the front of the cockpit on her husband's left during his effort to land the plane, but she said it did not touch her.

The children were in the plane's rear seat.

The troopers and Jennings watched the plane land, then rushed to the scene and took the four occupants to a Nashville hospital. Dorsey was to be transferred to a Little Rock or Shreveport hospital tonight.

His wife Mary, 30, suffered scalp lacerations. His daughters, Lynn, 7, and Ann, 5, suffered only superficial burns of the hands.

Business Ills Pose Problem to Kennedy

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Today's business uncertainties may become tomorrow's trends before President-elect John F. Kennedy takes the oath of office 10 weeks from today.

The problems are serious enough to give even a young and confident man pause. His plans for meeting them may be hampered by his lack of a strong majority in the popular vote and by the prospects of a conservative coalition still carrying great and perhaps decisive weight in the Congress.

You are involved in the outcome through your job your family budget, the prices you pay, the value of your dollar, the profits of your company, the market value of your stocks, the interest you get or pay.

At home we should know for sure by Jan. 20 if we're in for a recession.

The signs have been all around—but their significance has been somewhat fogged by campaign oratory of those who think them over-rated and those who think them dangerously ignored.

And within a short time we should get a better idea of the effectiveness of remedies presently

Boys Toss $188,613 Out Into Wind

DETROIT (AP) — Three boys tossed $188,613 to the wind Thursday.

The money was in the form of non-negotiable checks however. The boys, 9 and 10 years old, found the checks under a mail box. They were marked for delivery to a Detroit bank. The boys tried to cash them, but couldn't. So they tossed them away. Someone saw them and told police who recovered all but about a thousand dollars' worth.

The checks were stamped so that they could only be deposited to a special account.

The boys were not held.

Segregationists in Louisiana Plan Strategy

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — State segregation leaders prepared today for an 11th-hour attempt to prevent public school integration here on Monday.

The Louisiana Legislature resumes its 2-day special session in Baton Rouge Sunday afternoon, less than 24 hours before 60,000 Negro girls are due to enter first-grade classes at two all-white schools.

Lloyd J. Rittner, president of the Orleans Parish School Board, said no further meetings were planned. The board, under orders from U. S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright to integrate schools Monday, voted last Thursday night to transfer the Negroes.

Gov. Jimmie H. Davis summoned legislators back to the Capitol two days before the present special session, which he had called, was due to end. A new 10-day special session, called by Davis last Thursday, begins Tuesday upon the end of the current one.

The special session earlier this week passed 28 bills designed to preserve school segregation, including bills to give the legislators control of New Orleans schools. But Judge Wright, acting on a suit brought by New Orleans citizens, issued a restraining order telling the state to keep hands off the schools.

In other developments: (1) City police assigned a 24-hour guard to Judge Wright. A new segregation law makes any federal official working to bring about integration subject to arrest by state police.

(2) Warrants were served on state police chiefs and other officials. An order signed Thursday by Judge Wright prohibits all mayors, sheriffs, chiefs of police and district attorneys from interfering with New Orleans schools.

U. S. Defeats Soviet-Arab Opposition

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The United States beat down Soviet-Arab opposition Thursday night and pushed through the credentials committee a recommendation to send President Joseph Kasavubu as the Congo's U.N. representative. But a bitter fight in the General Assembly is in prospect.

The U. S. resolution was voted through 6-1 with the Soviet Union casting the dissenting vote. The United Arab Republic and Morocco—which had backed the Soviet Union in a dogged effort to adjourn the committee without action—refused to take part in the ballot.

The two Arab members charged that the credentials vote conflicted with the General Assembly's decision Wednesday to suspend consideration of the Congo question until a 15-nation Asian-African conciliation commission tries to bring together the warring political factions in the young African nation.

The Soviets and a number of Asian and African nations want to give the U. N. seat to deposed, deposed Congo premier, Both sides interpreted Thursday night's vote as encouraging to their cause.

Pledges Alone Will Keep Kennedy Busy

Editor's Note: The election is over and the task of pulling a new program into effect lies ahead for Sen. John F. Kennedy. His problems and his programs as they apply to domestic affairs are discussed by James Marlow, AP news analyst, in this first of a series of three special post-election articles.

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) - President-elect John F. Kennedy made enough campaign promises and pledges for better living in America to keep him busy for his four White House years.

"The theme of this campaign," he said, "is going to be action." His actions—and his frustrations—begin as soon as he takes office and has to deal with a Congress where although his Democrats retained control of it, there is a built-in stumbling block to some of his liberal ideas.

"This is the old coalition of conservatives, most Republicans and the Southern Democrats. They can block, blast and baffle the man in the White House."

A president can operate in one of three ways in dealing with Congress: forcefully, like Wilson and Franklin D. Roosevelt; hesitantly, like Truman; or cautiously, like Harding and Eisenhower.

Those who know Kennedy expect him to be forceful. But his squeaky victory over Vice President Richard M. Nixon has deprived him before he starts of that awe professional politicians have for a heavy winner.

Confronting Kennedy immediately will be two domestic problems involving money:

1. The country has had an economic downturn. He must try to avoid a recession.

2. Kennedy has never come up with a cost estimate for the programs he proposes. Nixon said it would be $15 billion. Kennedy floated at that. But soon after he takes office he will have to send his list of expenses—his budget—to Congress.

He has said he would not ask a tax increase. But he also promised to keep the budget balanced in through taxes—except in times of national emergency or severe recession.

How then, in view of his broad and far-reaching promises, would he do the balancing? He suggested various fields in which he thinks expenses might be cut. And he is going to look for tax loopholes that can be plugged up.

Still, most voters probably never heard of one-tenth or even one-fiftieth of the pledges and promises he made, because they were contained so many times in prepared speeches which, although he stood behind them, he threw away in order to talk to crowds about something which occurred to him at the moment.

But they cut across great fields of American life at home. He said: "I believe the times demand invention, innovation, imagination and decision."

What follows here is related only to his ideas on doing things at home and is separate from his proposals on national defense and foreign policy, both of which require money and plenty of it.

Here's a look at them:

High in his consciousness are the nation's natural resources, from trees to water power.

He promised action on: A comprehensive plan for many-purpose river development; "restoration of American leadership in nuclear power development; a stronger fight against water pollution; intensified research on such development programs as weather control and conversion of salt water into fresh; expansion of forest management and access road development.

His proposals on health education and aids to older people should keep him and Congress in a whirl for four years.

A medical care for the aged program paid through Social Security; higher pay for teachers (through federal aid; federal grants for construction expansion and modernization of medical schools dental schools and schools of public health; loans and scholarships for medical students; grants for renovating older hospitals; long term grants for increased medical research; stepped up efforts in rehabilitating the handicapped; increased Social Security payments; improved employment opportunities for older workers; a "massive construction program" for schools and colleges.

Then there's the field of civil rights, the most inflammatory the members of Congress ever try to handle.

Here are some of the things Kennedy said on this:

"The Democratic party intends to use the full legal and moral authority of the federal government—including in particular the presidency itself—to put an end to racial and religious discrimination in every area of our national life—so that every American has the same right as every other American to go to school to get a job, to vote, to buy a house, to use any public facility and to

The plight of the 13-year-old girl whose mother refused to let her attend a party even though it was chaperoned, has stirred other teenagers. I think the points made by two who live in Baltimore are well taken.

They write: "We two 14-year-old girls feel that this girl should have been allowed to attend the party which was to be chaperoned and for which transportation had been provided by the boy's parents. While at 13 and 14 most parties which a girl this age is normally permitted to attend will be chaperoned those she is allowed to attend at 15 or 16 will not. In all probability she adequately chaperoned. Therefore an adolescent who has not been introduced to social life at 13 or 14 will not know what is expected of her at 15 or 16."

"We believe that an adolescent who has been allowed to attend parties at 13 will feel much more secure when she begins actual dating."

Another teen-ager speaks up this time on the subject of mother-in-law.

"I am only a teen-ager," she says, "but I know how wrong a mother-in-law can be. My father has been good to us and I know my mother still loves him but he made a mistake got involved with someone else, then went home to his mother, even said it was she on mother, even said it was she who had the boy friend. That's all the thanks she got for looking after us and going to work to help out with the bills. But my grand mother just isn't interested in the other side of the story. She doesn't care as long as my father is with her—she's a widow."

"How can teen-agers be expected to grow up right if those we love do wrong?"

The question must hit home with a good many parents. The influence of the older generation on young people is enormous and the responsibility is terrific. Children imitate those they love even their elders when what they are doing may be bad.

A reader who signs herself "Silence is Golden," takes a whack at me for telling Desperate, Bewildered and Disgusted that a physical check-up or a visit to a psychiatrist might be in order for her ill-tempered husband. "All day I've been thinking about this poor woman," S. I. G. writes. "I go through the same life as her. My husband works hard, turns over every pay check to me and is forever working around the house but, if I go to the store, I am tramping the streets. If I have roast beef for supper, why not hot dogs if I go to bed at 9:30 why so early. If it's 1:30, how come so late."

"We have two teen-ager children that get sick over this, plus the rough talk when these moods strike him. I know my husband hasn't grown up but we love him. He will lose his temper in ten seconds use foul language, say, 'I'll burn this house down and smash all of you!' He'll do this practically every day then, an hour later, be all over the tannum."

"If I fight back it's worse because it lasts longer. But if I don't he'll pick on the kids. Did you ever have to tell your husband what you advised Desperate, Bewildered and Disgusted to tell hers?"

Not to my husband because it has never been necessary. He is a saint on earth. But I have said as much to a member of my family. It took courage for this person, despite his bad temper, dominated us all. We were shackled by love. Only when I spoke out did peace reign for the first time in our troubled household.

Ill-tempered people have either been spoiled from childhood, or are sick. The sooner this is recognized, the quicker the cure.

Another reader queried me recently on a rather bizarre situation. She and her second husband divorced then, without benefit of clergy, resumed their married life. Because of joint property ownership she wanted to know what states upheld common-law marriage. Since the laws on this question vary, I suggested she check with the attorney general of the state in which she lived.

A lawyer offers this solution: "The proper procedure for this woman and her husband is to go with an attorney, to the court clerk's office where the divorce was granted. Both husband and wife sign a petition to have the divorce annulled. The court will quickly grant this. They are then placed back in the same status."

Small College Back Increases Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Denny Spurlock of Whitworth (Wash.) College has increased his lead in total offense while moving into first place in pass completions in small college football.

Statistics released by the NCAA Service Bureau today showed Spurlock's total yardage gained at 1,670. He leads runner-up Charley Miller of Austin by 191 yards. Miller, however, has two games remaining to play compared with one for the Whitworth quarterback.

In completing 29 of 57 aerials last week, Spurlock lifted his total completions to 116.

Ron Puhl of Lock Haven wrestled the rushing lead from Joe Iacone of West Chester, who was idle last week. Puhl has gained 1,062 yards in 184 attempts. Iacone has 1,046 yards in 157 carries.

In the team figures, Florida A&M retained its scoring lead with a 67.3 points a game average. Florida A&M also is the total offense leader with a 473.3-yard average.

TRIAL BY SLANDER

By Travis Macrae

THE STORY: At the last session of her high school class, Janet Hamilton, a young widow, learns that the instructor, Jason Whiting, with whom she has formed a friendship, is married. She leaves him abruptly, but when she arrives home she finds Jason already there, talking to Gerry Anderson, the young sister who stays with Mrs. Hamilton's two small sons. After Gerry leaves, Jason says he loves Janet and asks her to marry him when he is free.

Chapter XII He finished his drink and said, "I wish I could just recite 'Four score and seven years ago our forefathers...' instead of trying to tell you about a youthful ass who made a hasty ill-advised marriage that hasn't mattered enough for him to try and do anything about it. Until now, Janet, I didn't tell you that I was married, because, at first, it wasn't important. Then I was afraid that, if you knew, I wouldn't see you any more. And seeing you became quite important."

"Don't tell me if you don't want to, Jason."

"But I do. Doggedly he continued. 'When I went to Yale, I was in complete ignorance of the whole idea of human relations. I was also very lonely, and it made for a vulnerable combination. My father was a solitary man—he had few friends and practically no social contacts after my mother died.'"

As he talked a picture slowly emerged—as much from what he left unsaid as from what he said. Janet could almost see a tall, thin, younger Jason, inept in all but his academic work, drawn to the warmth and outgoing vitality with which Antonia, an Italian grocer's daughter, and her large family surrounded him. He spoke of their humor, their love of music and good food, the gaiety and the earthy old-world charm of the parents. He began to spend more and more time in their house on the outskirts of New Haven.

"I didn't realize that this was taken as an interest in Antonia. Finally it became clear that I was expected to marry her, I hadn't thought of it, but it didn't seem a bad idea. So I did."

Antonia, who lacked interest in

Her heart pounded again when she heard his car in the drive, and she'd barely dried her hands before he was at the door. He stepped inside, and they stood staring awkwardly at each other. "You look wonderful," he said. They exchanged their fund of the past week's events. Jason told her that Antonia had left to go to her parents for a while and that she had not seemed upset when he had talked to her about a divorce. She had promised to think it over while she was in New Haven.

She introduced the boys, annoyed at her own nervousness, but before they went to bed they said goodnight to him of their own accord and Janet felt that the first point had been scored. Afterwards they sat on the terrace, their empty dinner trays beside them. Jason confided that he had been tentatively offered a job as head of the education department at a Western college and, agreed to pursue the offer. It was hard to part that night. It became harder each time they met.

Years later, Janet could still remember, in fine detail, those weeks from mid-June to August—those six weeks that were the length of their courtship.

Tons of Arkansas Food Contaminated

MEMPHIS (AP) — Government agents are continuing a crack-down on shipments of allegedly contaminated food which has resulted in the seizure of tons of commodities here in the past three months.

The third action in less than a month against Keystone Brand Pork and Beans was filed Thursday. It seeks condemnation of shipments allegedly containing stones.

The food was canned for the Keystone Packing Co. of Fort Smith, Ark., and shipped by the Steele Canning Co. of Springdale, Ark.

U.S. Atty. Warner Hodges said recently seizures have included nearly 70,000 pounds of flour, more than 40,000 pounds of frozen eggs and nearly 13,000 cans of pork and beans.

He said no criminal action was planned. To warrant such action, being tried for today's industrial slackness, or of the need for new ones.

Around we should have a clear notion of whether the loss of our gold and dollars is nearing an end. If the outboard tide due to a deficit in the balance of payment—paying out to foreigners more dollars than we get from them—isn't stopped or slowed in the next 10 weeks, the new president will have an urgent chore on his hands.

Even at best the major problem of our trade relations with our friends and our competition with the Red bloc will hang over the new president's head no matter what happens in the next 10 weeks.

The new Congress and the new administration is sure to hear renewed complaints from U.S. manufacturers suffering from inroads of cheaper foreign imports or stymied by foreign restrictions on their trade overseas.

The recession threat is personified by those already out of work or on reduced work weeks, or fearful for their jobs. In the consumer field it shows up in increased savings, cautious buying.

In the duller fields of statistics it is found in the slip in the total dollar-value of all goods and services produced in the nation in the slide in the index of industrial output, in the steel industry's running at about half capacity, in the cutback in business spending for inventory, in the trimming of business plans to spend for new plant and equipment.

Irish Retaliates

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — An Irish patrol ambushed by Baluba tribesmen in Katanga province apparently killed 10 of the attackers and wounded 10 others in a desperate burst of fire before they were overwhelmed.

The U.N. Congo Command announced today that 10 wounded Baluba tribesmen had been captured at the site of Tuesday's ambush and 10 other tribesmen were found dead. Only two of the 11-man Irish patrol escaped unhurt.

He said, there would have to be evidence of intent to contaminate.

Government Loses Cotton Loan Suit

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — R. S. Rainwater, Sr. and the Citizens National Bank, both of Walnut Ridge, have been upheld by the 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in a protracted lawsuit with the federal government over cotton loans.

The government sued Rainwater and the bank, contending that in 1949 Rainwater obtained Commodity Credit Corp. loans on cotton he had not produced and that the bank arranged for the loans.

The defendants denied the allegations.

U. S. District Judge Gordon E. Young directed a verdict for Rainwater and the bank at Jonesboro a year ago.

The government appealed, but the circuit court affirmed Young.

He arises to pronounce judgment, but another judge takes over. The Heavenly Judge speaks: "First, I condemn the father who fished, or played golf on Sunday instead of attending Sunday School and church worship with his son, where he might have learned the values of integrity and reverence. 'Secondly, I condemn the mother who didn't have time to teach him, 'Now I lay me down to sleep.' This mother actually committed this crime when she satisfied her own immediate pleasure at the sacrifice of her duties to her son and her home."
